

Geography (GEOG)

GEOG 119. World Regional Geography. 3 Credits.

An introduction to the geography of the major regions of the world, the human communities of those regions, and their relationships to geographic locations, physical environment, population, economic resources, and international politics.